Dear Mr. Casey,

I would like to extend to you, in your capacity as Head of the Central Intelligence Agency, an invitation to be a guest, this fall, of the Yale Political Union.

For your own information I would like to add that as the purpose of the Yale Political Union is largely to educate and instruct its members, we are a non-partisan political organization. Since 1934, the year of the Union's foundation, we have tried to solicit a variety of speakers and encourage open and conscientious debate. This, and the fact that the 1983-84 academic year will herald our 50th anniversary, impresses upon us a desire to have an outstanding speaker program. With this in mind, I invite you to join us and speak at one of our political caucuses on a week night, Monday through Thursday, anytime during the fall semester of our academic year, dating from September 16th to December 15th. Please do, we welcome the opportunity to hear you speak.

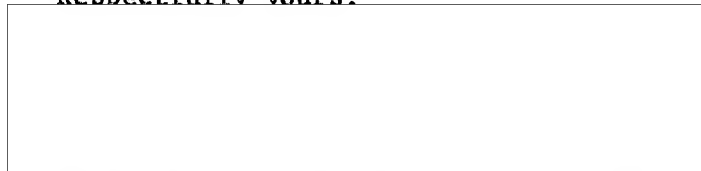

Our arrangements are flexible and open to any modification you might wish to suggest; but our standard format includes a reception and a dinner with interested Union members, a press conference (truly optional) and a speech or debate followed by a question and answer period. We would most certainly reimburse you for travel expenses, and should you wish to remain in New Haven for the evening, we would happily provide you with accommodations.

If you have questions or reservations, please do not hesitate to write me at this address or even to call me at home. I will be out of the country until August 2nd but will be reachable at any time after that. Again, I hope you will accept our invitation and I look forward to your response.

Respectfully yours,

Vice-President, The Yale Political Union
